

You are required to read and write an analysis on a total of 4 books, one per quarter. Only one title per author is permitted. All books you read must be starred (*) books. Two books are from summer reading requirement. Four of these books will be in-class assignments. For the other 2 you must read at least one other each semester. It is advised that you read as many books and as widely as possible if you plan to take the AP exam.
